

GEMMA students awarded a prize to the best MA Thesis and PhD by the Vice-Rectorate for Equality

28/07/2025

We are glad to inform the GEMMA Community of the prize awarded by the Vice-Rectorate for Equality, Inclusion and Social Commitment of the University of Granada to GEMMA alumni in the 3rd Edition of the Awards for Undergraduate Dissertations, Master's Dissertations and Doctoral Theses on Inclusion and Equality during the 2022/2023 academic year.

The alumni receiving an award on the area of Equality (Line 1) is:

Category: Doctoral Theses

FIRST PRIZE - Ángela Harris Sánchez, "Power in public art spaces. F(r)ictions, performativity and the generation of counter-hegemonic narratives", supervised by Prof. Margarita Sánchez Romero and Prof. Pilar Villar Argáiz from the University of Granada and Prof. Rita Monticelli from the University of Bologna.

The alumni receiving an award on the area of Solidarity and Intergenerational Action (Line 3) is:

Category: Master's Thesis

ACCESIT - Martina Ailén García, "Relatos, Memorias y Emociones: Recuerdos y resistencia de las mujeres militantes durante la última dictadura cívico-militar-ecclesial argentina (1976-1983) (Narratives, Memories and Emotions: Remembrances and resistance of military women during the last civic-military-ecclesiasticArgentinian dictatorship (1976-1983))", supervised by Prof. Ana Alcázar Campos from the University of Granada and Prof. Elena Musiani from the University of Bologna.

More information can be found in the final resolution published on the website of the Vice-Rectorate for Equality, Inclusion and Social Commitment of the University of Granada.

Congratulations to all of them!